

Short-story and art competition

Sopley Primary School are launching a Short-story and art competition.

Please include full name, address, age of entrant, contact email and £1 entry fee and submit entries by 13th June by hand or post to: FAO Competition Entry, Sopley Primary School, Ripley, Christchurch BH23 8ET.

Or email: friendsofsopleyschool@outlook.com

For more information and details of the judging panel and prizes please visit:

www.burleyandsopleyfederation.org.uk/page/?title=Short+Story+and+Art+Competition+2022&pid=3905

SHORT-STORY COMPETITION

Write a short-story, no more than 500 words about 'The outdoors'. The story could concern animal habitats, conservation, a journey, a day out, or any type of story you like which is set outside somewhere.

If you'd like you can also choose to illustrate your story.

ART COMPETITION

Create a piece of art inspired by 'The Outdoors'. You can paint, draw or collage!

For younger entries, they can submit a nature related picture that they have coloured in.

Prizes

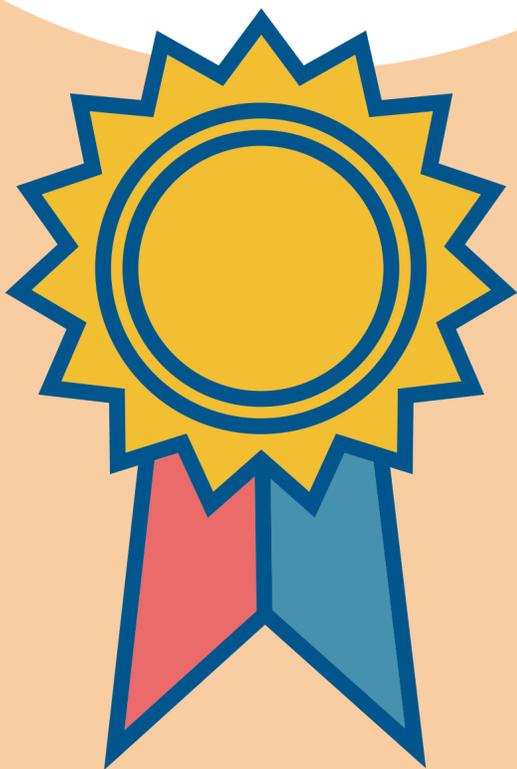

We have some great prizes with donations from Lunns of Ringwood, The works and from our fantastic expert panel of judges:

Chris Connaughton a local author

Cathy Morris from The Paintbox Arts

Owain Masters from The Amphibian and Reptile Conservation Trust

WRITING COMPETITION PRIZES

All shortlisted work will be exhibited at Ringwood Library!

Chris Connaughton and Owain Masters will be the key judges and have donated some wonderful prizes including signed copies of their books!

ART COMPETITION PRIZES

All shortlisted artwork will be exhibited at Avon Heath Country Park!

Cathy Morris and Owain Masters will be the key judges and have donated some wonderful prizes including a free art class and lots of art supplies!

